Match Facts

- Australia defeated India by six wickets to win the 2023 ICC Men's Cricket World Cup trophy.
- Australia won the toss and elected to bowl first. Rohit Sharma got India off to a blazing start as he took down the Australian pacers in the first half of the powerplay. The hosts lost Shubman Gill in the fifth over but that didn't deter the Indian skipper from being aggressive. Virat Kohli struck three consecutive fours off Mitchell Starc as India raced past 50 inside seven overs. Pat Cummins had to turn to Glenn Maxwell in the powerplay to slow the pace and he immediately struck gold for Australia, plucking out the prized wicket of Sharma courtesy a sensational catch from Travis Head. Cummins then himself struck in the very next over and removed the in-form Shreyas Iyer. Virat Kohli and KL Rahul combined to rebuild the innings but, on a slow surface, they struggled to keep the scoreboard ticking along at a decent clip. They had to absorb a lot of pressure, credit to some excellent bowling from the Australians. The pair took 97 deliveries to hit the first boundary of the partnership. Kohli reached a well-compiled half-century but chopped one back onto his stumps. India then also lost Ravindra Jadeja to the reverse-swinging ball as Australia tightened the screws. The hosts were totally starved for boundaries and Australia kept chipping away with wickets at the back end. Their pacers shared seven wickets between them as they bowled India out for 240 runs.
- In pursuit of the run-chase, Australia commenced their innings with an aggressive intent as they compiled 15 runs from the first over. India, though, punched back immediately with Mohammad Shami getting the massive wicket of David Warner. Australia kept coming hard at the hosts with Mitchell Marsh taking the charge against the swinging ball. However, it was Jasprit Bumrah who kept India in the hunt with twin strikes of Marsh and Steve Smith. At 3/60 by the end of the powerplay, Australia needed to reconstruct as the Indian spinners came into play. Marnus Labuschagne and Travis Head propelled the innings forward for the tourists. They complimented each other excellently as Labuschagne absorbed the pressure while Head took the attack to the opposition. Head blazed along to his half-century and the pair also notched up a terrific 100-run partnership. They brought the equation down to 93 runs off 23 overs with seven wickets in hand. India desperately needed a breakthrough in the middle phases but neither their pacers nor their spinners could penetrate through this partnership. Head marched along and registered a magnificent century to put Australia on cruise control. The partnership kept blossoming as they brought the required runs under 50. After crossing three figures, Head went all-guns blazing and struck a flurry of boundaries before he got dismissed caught on the boundary. On the back of this sensational stand of 192 runs, Australia waltzed along to register a six-wicket victory and secure their sixth World Cup title.

Milestones Achieved

- Australia have won their sixth ODI World Cup title – the most by any team in the history of the format. No other team has won it more than twice.
- Australia became the first team to win a ODI Cricket World Cup after losing two consecutive matches at the start of the tournament.
- Travis Head has become the seventh player across the globe and third from Australia to score a century in a World Cup final. He is only the second player to achieve this feat in a run-chase.
- This is now the eighth individual century for Australia in this World Cup – the joint-most by a team in a single edition of a Cricket World Cup.
- Head's innings of 137 is now the fourth-highest score ever in a World Cup final.
- The 192-run partnership between Travis Head and Marnus Labuschagne is now the second-highest partnership in World Cup finals.
- Head has become the fourth player to win the Player of the Match award in both the semi-final and final of a World Cup edition.
- Kohli and Head have become the seventh and eighth players respectively to make a 50-plus score in both the semi-final and final of a World Cup edition.
- Kohli has also become the first player to make five consecutive 50-plus scores twice in World Cups (2019 and 2023).
- Kohli concluded this edition with an average of 95.62 – the second highest ever among players who have scored a minimum of 500 runs in a World Cup.
- Sharma has now struck 86 sixes versus Australia in ODIs – the most sixes hit by any player against a particular opposition.
- Sharma has now scored the second-most number of powerplay runs in a calendar year in ODIs (1537 runs).
- Sharma concluded this edition with 31 sixes which is now the most sixes by a player in a single edition of the mega-event.
- Adam Zampa finished this World Cup with 23 wickets – the joint most number of wickets taken by a spinner in a single edition.

Tournament Facts

- Australia emerged as champions of the 2023 ICC Men's Cricket World Cup. They have now secured the coveted trophy six times (1987, 1999, 2003, 2007, 2015 & 2023), the most by any nation in the competition's history. Only two other teams have two ICC Men's Cricket World Cup titles - West Indies (1975, 1979) and India (1983, 2011).
- This was Australia's eighth appearance in the final of an ICC Men's Cricket World Cup, the most for any team in the competition's history. It was India's fourth final appearance, joint second most with England.
- This is the first instance where every participating team managed to win at least two games each in a single edition of an ICC Men's Cricket World Cup.
- Travis Head has become the seventh player across the globe and third from Australia to score a century in a World Cup final. He is only the second player to achieve this feat in a run-chase.
- South Africa's 428 runs against Sri Lanka in Match 4 is now the highest ever World Cup team total. It was also South Africa's third highest total in ODI history.
- Pakistan chased down 345 runs against Sri Lanka in Match 8, this is now the highest ever successful run-chase in World Cup history and the second highest for Pakistan across all ODIs.
- Australia's 309-run win over Netherlands in Match 24 became the highest-ever victory by runs in World Cups and the second highest across all ODIs.
- In Match 27 between Australia and New Zealand, 32 sixes were struck. This is now the second-highest sixes tally in a World Cup match. A total of 771 runs were scored in that match, which is now the highest ever aggregate in a World Cup game.
- Indian batters scored 3038 runs in this World Cup which is now the second-most scored by a team in a single edition of the tournament. Their bowlers took 98 wickets in this World Cup which is also now the most wickets taken by a team in a single edition.
- South Africa became the first team to score four 350-plus scores in a single World Cup edition. They hit 99 sixes in this World Cup – the most by a team in a single edition. They had nine individual hundreds in this World Cup which is also now the most for a team in a single edition.
- Virat Kohli became the first player in the history of ODI cricket to score 50 centuries. He made nine 50-plus scores in this World Cup – now the most number of 50-plus scores by a player in a single edition. This meant that he is now the only player to make five consecutive 50-plus scores twice in World Cups (2019 and 2023)
- Kohli's tally of 765 runs in this tournament is now the most runs ever by a player in a single World Cup edition. He concluded this edition with an average of 95.62 – the second highest ever among players who have scored a minimum of 500 runs in a World Cup.
- Kohli now has a total of 13,848 runs in ODIs and thus, has surpassed Sanath Jayasuriya and Ricky Ponting to become the third-highest run-getter in ODI history. He is also now the second-highest run-getter in ICC Men's World Cup history with 1,795 runs.
- Quinton de Kock's 594 runs in this World Cup is now the highest runs tally by a wicketkeeper batter in a single World Cup edition. He became the first player in history to score 500 runs and affect 20 or more dismissals in a single World Cup edition. He is also now only the second batter after Kumar Sangakkara to score three or more centuries in World Cups as a designated wicketkeeper. De Kock's four centuries also meant that it is now the the joint second-most for a batter in a single edition and the most by a South African batter.
- Mitchell Starc surpassed Wasim Akram and Lasith Malinga to become the third-highest wicket-taker in World Cup history (65 wickets).

- In the opening match of this tournament, Rachin Ravindra became the youngest New Zealand player and the third-youngest debutant overall to score a World Cup century (23y 321d). His tally of 578 runs in this edition is now the most runs scored by any player in their maiden World Cup.
- Glenn Maxwell struck the fastest century in World Cup history (off 40 balls) in Match 24 against Netherlands.
- In match 39 vs Afghanistan, Glenn Maxwell scored an unbeaten 201*. In doing so, he became the first Australian to score a double century in ODIs and the first batter ever to score a double century in ODI history while chasing. This is the highest score ever in ODI history while batting at number six or a position lower. It is also now the third-highest individual score ever in World Cup history and lastly, this double hundred was also the second-fastest in terms of balls taken (128).
- Rohit Sharma and David Warner became the joint-fastest players to reach 1000 runs in World Cups (19 innings). They are also the second and third players respectively to score 500 or more runs in two or more World Cup editions.
- Rohit Sharma now has seven centuries in World Cups, the most number of hundreds scored by any player in the mega-event. He surpassed Ricky Ponting and climbed to the third position on the list for most ODI centuries by a player (31). He also became the first player ever to hit more than 50 6s in World Cups (54).
- Sharma finished with 597 runs in this World Cup, the most runs ever scored by a captain in a single edition.
- Mohammad Shami became the fastest bowler ever to get 50 wickets in World Cups (17 innings). He is also the first bowler to take three five-wicket hauls in a single World Cup edition. He took 24 wickets in 7 matches at this tournament, the third most number of wickets by any bowler in a single edition.
- Shami's figures of 7/57 in the semi-final against New Zealand are now the best ever figures for an Indian bowler in ODIs. They are also the fifth-best figures overall in World Cups.
- India's total of 397 runs in the first semi-final is now the highest total in World Cup knockouts. Iyer's 67-ball century in that game is now the fastest-ever century in World Cup knockouts.
- Adam Zampa finished this World Cup with 23 wickets – the joint-most number of wickets taken by a spinner in a single edition.
- Shaheen Afridi became the fastest pacer to reach to 100 wickets in ODI history and the third-fastest overall (51 innings).
- Shubman Gill became the fastest batter to notch up 2000 runs in ODI cricket (38 innings). Gill also became the joint-fastest to score 1500 runs in a calendar year (27 innings).
- Haris Rauf conceded 533 runs in this World Cup - the most conceded by any bowler in a single World Cup edition.
- David Warner brought up his seventh 150-plus score in ODI cricket in Match 18 against Pakistan, the second-most number of 150+ scores by a player in ODIs.
- The 273-run partnership between Rachin Ravindra and Devon Conway in the opening match against England was the fourth-highest stand in World Cup history.
- The 259-run partnership between David Warner and Mitchell Marsh in Match 18 against Pakistan is now the second-highest opening stand in World Cup history.
- Quinton de Kock and Rassie van der Dussen became only the second pair after Tillakaratne Dilshan and Upul Tharanga to have multiple double-century stands in World Cup matches.
- The 202-run partnership between Glenn Maxwell and Pat Cummins in their match against Afghanistan became the highest partnership for seventh wicket or below in ODI cricket.
