WELCOME ICC PRESIDENT

It is my pleasure to welcome all members of the media to Bangladesh for the ICC World Twenty20 2014. This is the fifth edition of the tournament, and the fourth time that the men's and women's competitions will be played alongside each other, with the women's semi-finals and final held on the same day and at the same venue as the men's.

Staged between 16 March and 6 April, we will see 62 tournament matches (35 men's and 27 women's), involving 26 teams, played across Chittagong, Dhaka and Sylhet.

The format of the men's event has been changed following an increase in teams from 12 to 16, six of which qualified through a global pathway that culminated in the ICC World Twenty20 Qualifier UAE 2013.

This year's format will see Zimbabwe and Bangladesh participate in the first round of the tournament alongside the six qualifiers, from 16 to 21 March. The top two teams from the first round will join the remaining eight Full Member teams in the Super Ten stage, followed by the semi-finals and final.

The ICC Women's World Twenty20 2014 has been increased from eight to 10 teams, with three teams advancing from the ICC Women's World Twenty20 Qualifier Ireland 2013, and Bangladesh, as host, making its debut at the event. The first round matches of the women's event will take place in Sylhet from 23 March to 2 April, with the semi-finals and final played in Dhaka from 3 to 6 April.

We are delighted that 35 men's and 3 women's matches over the 22-day tournament will be broadcast globally with an audience reach expected to exceed the 1.5 billion of the 2012 event. We thank our global broadcast partner, Star Sports, for its loyal and continuing support of ICC tournaments.

A special word of thanks must also go to our commercial partners, whose support for ICC events is instrumental in promoting our great sport and building a bigger, better global game.

Our thanks also go to the Bangladesh Cricket Board for hosting the event, as well as the venues, the ground staff, the match officials and the ICC staff for their hard work.

I have no doubt that both local and foreign media will enjoy the hospitality and generosity of Bangladesh and its people over the next three weeks, as well as the skill and exhilaration of the tournament itself.

David Richardson
ICC President

WELCOME BANGLADESH PRESIDENT

The ICC World Twenty20 Bangladesh 2014 has arrived in Bangladesh, and it is an honor for me to extend a warm welcome to everyone visiting our country on this auspicious occasion.

The fifth edition of the event will see players from 16 men's and 10 women's teams fighting for victory and prestige.

Along with the cricket there will be an inflow of fans and representatives of the world media. This will be a blending of nations, cultures and heritage and we are waiting in eager anticipation to share this experience and to greet our visitors from abroad with open arms.

Cricket in Bangladesh is followed passionately. This game is probably one of the strongest unifying factors in this country. Through cricket we are spreading our message of harmony and inviting people from all around the globe to feel the warmth and legendary hospitality of this land.

The media guide is an excellent introduction to Bangladesh and the event. I am sure you will find it informative and helpful. I hope everyone associated with this great event will have a memorable experience.

Nazmul Hassan, MP

Bangladesh Cricket Board President

TRAVELLING IN BANGLADESH

BANGLADESH

Bangladesh is a small South Asian country bubbling with natural beauty and historical richness. Born out of war with Pakistan in 1971 following decades of freedom struggle, it has been described as God's own hand painting for its diversity of colour, culture and memorable sites. The country is often termed a new state in an ancient land.

With an area of 148,393 sq km, Bangladesh occupies the tip of the arch formed by the Bay of Bengal. The climate of Bangladesh is generally hot and humid, with heavy seasonal rainfall usually ushering the start of monsoon. Daily temperatures range from 10-15 degrees during the cool months, but, more often, between 28-40 degrees.

The country lies across the Tropic of Cancer in the north-eastern part of South Asia. It is bordered by India on the west, north and northeast, Myanmar on the southeast and the Bay of Bengal on the south. The landmass is criss-crossed by a network of several major rivers, their numerous tributaries and canals forming a lace of interconnecting channels. Bangladesh is the largest riverine delta in the world.

Bangladesh has some of the world's most fertile agricultural lands, which account for abundant growth of various crops.

In the old days, Bangladesh was known particularly for its Muslin, the finest fabric the world has ever produced. Because of its location, Bangladesh served as a flourishing entry port and intermediary in trade and commerce between South Asia and the Far East. Ancient Bangladesh took great pride as a coveted seat of learning and education and scholars from far away countries regularly flocked to its numerous universities and monasteries.

Bangladesh is home to great biodiversity. The Sundarbans in the Southwestern belt is a world heritage site, and one of the principal remaining domains of the endangered Royal Bengal Tiger.

The country is densely populated with an average density of roughly 800 people per sq. km. Bangladesh is the second largest Muslim country in the world, and traditionally a land of communal harmony. The people are noted for their valour and resilience as well as hospitality and friendliness.

The economy has historically been agrarian, but over the last 15 years there has been a spurt in industrialisation with the utilisation of country's available natural resources and manpower. Trade and commerce are increasing and widening, and the economy for the past decade has remained on a stable footing.

VISA AND CUSTOMS

VISA

All foreign visitors to Bangladesh require a visa. Tourist visas are the easiest to obtain. Depending on the office you're dealing with, they can be issued for periods of up to two months (Australians can get six months), and whatever the length of your stay, it is suggested that you apply for the maximum amount of time permitted, or at least specify a date. Most consular offices will request a letter of invitation along with the visa.

Business VISA

A business visa can be issued for periods of up to six months, and require a letter introducing your company along with a letter from your proposed business partner stating the purpose of your visit.

Visa fees vary from nationality to nationality, as Bangladesh practices a reciprocal fee system. You can check the fee schedule on the immigration website (www.dip.gov.bd).

If you obtain a visa that expires during your stay, begin the process for visa extension as soon as you are settled in Bangladesh. Security clearances and work permits are required for most visa extensions. If your visa does expire you will have to pay a fine, a rate variable depending on your work and host organisation. You will also require an exit visa to leave Bangladesh.

The majority of nationals from Western countries (Australia, Canada, Europe, UK, USA,) could obtain a 'Landing Permit on Arrival' if arriving in Dhaka with no visa, and while it may not be checked, you should also carry printed proof of your onward travel arrangements. With a fee, you can avail this landing permit when you arrive at Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport, and you should be granted a 15-day stay. The permit would normally be issued to visitors hailing from most Western countries, especially when they arrive from a country with no resident Bangladesh mission. The airport immigration telephone number at Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport is +880 2 891 4226.

Visa Extensions

Visa processing is handled by the Department of Immigration and Passports (Passport Bhaban, E7 Agargaon, Sher-e-Bangla Nagar, www.dip.gov.bd).

Landing permits and transit visas are non-extendable. Tourist visas can be extended for up to 30 days. A starting point of reference should be the department's website.

- Passport photocopy
- Visa page photocopy
- Photocopy of the page containing your entry stamp
- One passport photo

Customs

The following goods may be imported into Bangladesh without incurring customs duty:

- 200 cigarettes or 50 cigars or 225g of tobacco
- Two bottles of alcoholic beverages or one bottle if not traveling for tourist purposes (non-Muslims only)
- 250ml of perfume
- Gifts up to the value of Tk500.

Note: Duty free items may be bought at the duty free shop at Dhaka Airport on arrival.

Bangladesh customs authorities may enforce strict regulations concerning temporary importation into or export from Bangladesh of items such as currency, household appliances, alcohol, cigarettes and weapons. There is no restriction as to the amount of U.S. currency visitors may bring into Bangladesh; however, they must declare to customs authorities if they are carrying more than USD $5,000 at the time of arrival. It is advisable to contact the Bangladesh Embassy or Consulate for specific information regarding customs requirements.

Customs authorities may enforce strict regulations concerning temporary importation into or export of items such as firearms, religious materials, antiquities, medications, business equipment and other items.

Other Bangladesh customs information: A yellow fever certificate is required for all persons (including infants) arriving by air or sea within six days of departure from an infected area, or a country with infection in any part, or a country judged by WHO to be a location where yellow fever is endemic or present; or has been in such an area in transit; or has come by an aircraft which has come from such an area and has not been properly disinfected. Those arriving without a required certificate may be detained in quarantine.

EVENT HISTORY

South Africa hosted the ICC World Twenty20 tournament in 2007, which was won by India in a dramatic final against Pakistan at The Wanderers. The tournament will also be remembered for Yuvraj Singh hitting six sixes in one over against England and the first-ever Twenty20 International hundred, which was scored by Chris Gayle.

Pakistan won the second edition of the men's tournament, which took place in England in 2009. It defeated Sri Lanka in the final of the event at Lord's, although Tillakaratne Dilshan won the Player of the Tournament Award. Associate Members enjoyed great success, with the Netherlands defeating England and Ireland beating Bangladesh.

In 2009, the first ever women's tournament was also held alongside the men's event, with double header matches played at the semi-finals and final stage. England won the tournament after defeating New Zealand in the final after an outstanding display by Katherine Brunt.

In 2010, England's men captured its first ever ICC global title, defeating Australia by seven wickets in the final, while Australia's women won a close final against New Zealand by three runs.

In 2012, while West Indies beat host Sri Lanka by 36 runs to win the men's title, its first ICC trophy since the ICC Champions Trophy in 2004, Australia beat England by four runs to win the women's title.

TOURNAMENT INFORMATION

TOURNAMENT FORMAT

The ICC World Twenty20 Bangladesh 2014 will be staged from 16 March to 6 April, with a total of 62 tournament matches (35 men's and 27 women's) played across Chittagong, Dhaka and Sylhet in the 22-day tournament.

As with the last two events, the women's semi-finals and final will be held on the same day as the men's semi-finals and final, and at the same venue.

The format for the men's event has been changed following an increase in teams from 12 to 16. As the teams' seeding are based on the Reliance ICC T20I Team Rankings as on 8 October 2012, the top eight sides following the conclusion of the ICC World Twenty20 Sri Lanka 2012 will play directly in the Super 10 stage while Bangladesh and Zimbabwe, which finished outside the top eight, will participate in the first round that will be held from 16-21 March.

The first round of the men's event will include eight sides and twelve matches, with the teams divided into two groups of four teams each, with the table-toppers progressing to the Super 10 stage.

The six other teams in the first round advanced to the tournament after finishing in the top six of the ICC World Twenty20 Qualifier in the UAE in November 2013. Ireland won the event after defeating Afghanistan by 68 runs in the final, and the top six teams from the tournament are:

ICC World Twenty20 Qualifier - Top 6
Ireland
Afghanistan
Nepal
UAE
Netherlands
Hong Kong

The Super 10 stage will start with an evening match between former champions India and Pakistan in Dhaka on Friday 21 March. Twenty matches in total will be played in this stage.

The two groups of the Super 10 stage are:

Group 1	Group 2
Sri Lanka	West Indies
England	India
South Africa	Pakistan
New Zealand	Australia
Group B Qualifier 1 (Q1B)	Group A Qualifier 1 (Q1A)

The ICC Women's World Twenty20 2014 has been increased from eight to 10 teams, and the host, Bangladesh, will make its maiden appearance at the event.

Three teams qualified for the tournament through the ICC Women's World Twenty20 Qualifier held in Dublin in August 2013. Pakistan and Sri Lanka advanced after reaching the final the title was shared after rain prevented a result, and are joined by Ireland, which finished third after beating Netherlands by two runs in the third place play-off.

The first round matches of the women's event will take place in Sylhet from 23 March to 2 April.

ESSENTIAL MEDIA INFORMATION

ESSENTIAL MEDIA INFORMATION

OVERVIEW

The ICC World Twenty20 Bangladesh 2014 aims to provide extensive, world-class facilities to the media.

This section provides the practical information you require in relation to the media facilities available, both on match days and non-match days.

These facilities include:

- accreditation information
- venue media facilities
- accreditation centres
- additional media services available during the tournament.

ACCREDITATION OVERVIEW

A full tournament accreditation system will be in operation across all venues for all ICC World Twenty20 Bangladesh 2014 matches, warm-up matches and practice sessions. The accreditation system is designed to help, not to hinder. Its purpose is to provide accredited persons with a controlled environment in which they can work as efficiently and as effectively as possible.

Media personnel wishing to access the stadia or any off-site practice grounds on non-match days are advised to wear their accreditation, while the NRH camera persons will be provided venue-specific bibs, as the venue security will be operating 24 hours a day during the tournament, and accreditation will be required to access media facilities and any preferential media parking that may be arranged.

An accreditation pass is personal and non-transferable. Any breach of this condition will lead to immediate revocation of the accreditation. It allows access to certain accredited areas but does not entitle the holder to a press seat or photo position. On match days, a press box or photographer pass will be required. Certain members of the media will also require a secondary accreditation device (see below).

All media accreditation-related queries should be directed to wt20accreditation@dnanetworks.in.

All official broadcaster accreditation-related queries should be directed to lara.richards@icc-cricket.com.

ACCREDITATION CENTRES

There will be accreditation centres located in Dhaka, Chittagong and Sylhet.

The accreditation centres in all three cities will be open from Saturday, 8 March 2014, and will operate from 9:30 to 18:00 every day (local time).

Please note the published hours are subject to change should the need arise.

TOURNAMENT ACCREDITATION PASS COLLECTION PROCEDURES

Written press and photographers must collect their passes from the accreditation centre they indicated in their original application.

All accreditation passes must be collected in person. You will be asked to produce the photo identity document you provided when you applied on line for accreditation in order to collect your pass, a copy of which will be taken for our records. You will be asked to sign for your pass on receipt. Collection and signature will reconfirm your agreement to the media tournament terms and conditions.

LOST / STOLEN / FORGOTTEN ACCREDITATION PASSES

Any lost or stolen accreditation pass represents a potential compromise to tournament security. It is therefore essential that every effort is made to look after passes. A lost or stolen pass should be immediately reported to the nearest police station (a police report will be required), to any operational accreditation centre, and via email to wt20accreditation@dnanetworks.in. A full police investigation will be undertaken prior to any decision being made to re-issue the pass and this is likely to cause a delay. If a pass has been left at a hotel or other local venue, the accredited media person will be required to return to the location to retrieve it. No additional or temporary pass will be issued.

TOURNAMENT ACCREDITATION PASS

Media will be issued with a tournament accreditation pass that is valid for all tournament venues, warm-up matches and official team practices.

Photographers will also be issued a numbered bib on each match day. A media accreditation pass itself does not automatically entitle the holder to entry into the venue. All passes will be scanned on match days and only those who have been allocated a seat in the press box, or a photo position, will be able to enter. Note that non-rights holding broadcasters will not be permitted to bring any recording equipment into the venue on match days.

All match accreditation requests made by individual journalists, photographers and non-rights-holding broadcasters are collated and ranked in accordance with the pre-agreed priority order. This order is determined by the ICC, which has ultimate control over the process.

All media attending the tournament are required to sign and adhere to the tournament media terms and conditions. These can be found on the accreditation page of the event website, or on the online media zone - www.icc-cricket.com/mediazone/.

There are two match-specific media priority orders; one for determining the allocation of press seats in press boxes and overflow seating areas, and another for determining the allocation of photographic positions.

MATCH ALLOCATIONS

Only journalists with match-day tickets will be allowed access inside the venue.

Match day passes will be in place for all men's warm up matches and tournament matches, as well as women's tournament matches.

Match day passes will not be required for women's warm ups.

PRESS BOX, MEDIA CENTRE, OVERFLOW SEATING

Space is limited at each venue due to high demand, so please be aware that your match/press box and photography position request is not necessarily a guarantee that the ICC will be able to accommodate all your requests.

A waiting list may operate at certain matches, and media who do not take up a position they have requested in a press box or overflow seat 30 minutes before the scheduled start of play may lose their allocation.

Code of Conduct

Please note that all journalists, including photographers, are required to agree to the code of conduct for the tournament as well as the tournament media terms and conditions.

Photographers should adhere to the requests of security personnel, tournament officials and venue staff at all times.

Photographers Requests

Final arrangements at each venue will be confirmed at the photographers' briefing. Should photographers wish to take venue shots prior to the game they should make this clear to the venue photographer manager before the briefing. Every effort will be made to give photographers access to their requested vantage points.

Equally, should photographers wish to gain access to a specific elevated position or locate a remote camera, they should make this request to the venue photographer manager. Whenever possible, photographers are encouraged to meet with the photographer manager prior to match days at the stadium to discuss any special requests. Wherever possible, the requests will be facilitated, although access to restricted locations may not be available.

Photographers should note that any cameras or equipment left in remote positions or unattended at any time are the responsibility of the individual. The ICC, the BCB, tournament staff and volunteers cannot take responsibility for any equipment misplaced, damaged, lost or stolen.

Waiting Lists

For certain matches, accredited journalists and photographers who are not allocated a press-box seat or position for a match due to excess demand will be placed on a waiting list.

No Shows

Journalists and photographers who have requested and been allocated to a match-day or photo position and who subsequently fail to collect that ticket, or fail to report their cancellation before the deadline without good reason, may be penalised and placed at the bottom of the priority order for the next match. Multiple no-shows without prior warning may result in further match requests being suspended for the individual and organisation. Failure to attend two match days, which have been requested by an individual, may result in the withdrawal of accreditation.

Media should advise of any cancellations or revised plans by emailing wt20accreditation@dnanetworks.in.

Applications for Semi-Finals and Final

Accreditation for press box positions/photo positions at the semi-finals and the final can only be made after the conclusion of Super 10 matches on 1 April through individuals' online accounts. Due to limited space in the press boxes and high demand, strict pecking order will be followed and journalists whose teams are involved in the semi-finals will get the priority (according to the pecking order).

Television, Radio, Internet or other Interactive or Electronic Media Broadcast

No television, radio, internet or other interactive or electronic media broadcaster other than an official licensed broadcaster may broadcast, transmit and/or stream sound or images or a combination of them anywhere in the world of the ICC World Twenty20 Bangladesh 2014.

This includes, without limitation, any event/function organised prior to the commencement of the matches on 12th March 2014, any press conference, interviews, training sessions, warm-up matches and competitive matches, any post match presentations, and/or other events/functions which are organised in relation to the tournament.

TEAM PROFILE

Afghanistan's rise to international cricketing prominence has been one of the most remarkable stories of recent times.

In 2013 it won 26 of 28 matches in all formats against other Associate or Affiliate nations apart from Ireland.

This is its third ICC Global Event following its debut at the 2010 ICC World Twenty20 in the Caribbean, where it was defeated by India and South Africa in the Group Stage.

In the 2012 tournament, it lost by only 23 runs to India before losing more comprehensively, by 116 runs, to England.

Seven members of the 2010 squad also played in the final of the ICC World Twenty20 Qualifier 2013 last November, a game it lost to Ireland.

It had already secured qualification for the ICC World Twenty20 2014 with a 34-runs victory over Kenya at Sharjah.

That match included one of three man-of-the-match performances by leg-spinner Samiullah Shenwari, who was named player of the tournament. He finished joint third-highest wicket-taker in the tournament with 16 wickets at 8.25 and an excellent economy rate of only 5.28.

Prior to its success in qualifying for this tournament, Afghanistan finished runner-up in the Pepsi ICC World Cricket League Championship to secure qualification for the ICC Cricket World Cup 2015 in Australia New Zealand, its first 50-over ICC Global Event.

TEAM PROFILE

Australia has won the ICC Cricket World Cup four times and the ICC Champions Trophy twice but has yet to lift the ICC World Twenty20 trophy.

In 2010, it reached the final at Bridgetown where it lost to England, as well as the semi-finals in 2007 and 2012.

In 2012, Australia flew out of the blocks, winning its first four matches including a nine-wicket victory over India when Shane Watson and David Warner put on 133 for the first wicket. It lost its next two matches, though, and went out to eventual winner West Indies in the semi-finals.

All-rounder Watson has the joint second-highest number of man-of-the-match awards (eight) in Twenty20 Internationals and was player of the tournament at the ICC World Twenty20 2012.

Australia contested the first ever Twenty20 International when it beat New Zealand at Auckland by 44 runs in February 2005.

It won one of eight T20Is in the 12 months to October 2013, with the single victory (over England at Southampton) including the highest ever score in a T20I, 156 off 63 balls by opener Aaron Finch.

After a disappointing ICC Champions Trophy 2013, its 50-over form was excellent with series' wins in Scotland (one-off match), England, India and then at home to England.

It won all three T20Is against England in January and February 2014.

TEAM PROFILE

Host nation Bangladesh has appeared in all four ICC World Twenty20 tournaments and the last four ICC Cricket World Cups, stretching back to 1999. A year later it acquired ICC Full Member status.

It won its first ICC World Twenty20 match in 2007, beating West Indies by six wickets at Johannesburg, but has lost all ten of its fixtures in the competition since then.

In the 2012 tournament it lost to New Zealand and Pakistan, though in the latter fixture, Shakib Al Hasan made 84 which was, albeit for only two months, the highest T20I score by a Bangladesh batsman.

Bangladesh's improved form in 2013 under the captaincy of Mushfiqur Rahim across all formats, particularly at home, should provide the team with confidence.

In October, against New Zealand at Chittagong, off-spinner Sohag Gazi became the first man in history to score a century and take a hat-trick in the same Test.

The two-match series was drawn 0-0 and Bangladesh followed up by defeating New Zealand 3-0 in the subsequent ODI series.

TEAM PROFILE

England won its first ICC global title when, captained by Paul Collingwood, it beat Australia by seven wickets at Bridgetown to lift the ICC World Twenty20 2010 trophy.

Despite winning neither of its Group Stage matches, England went on to win all three of its games in the Super Eight stage.

Kevin Pietersen, the player of that tournament, is England's leading run-scorer in T20Is (1,176 runs as at January 28, 2014).

However, England is still waiting for its first century in a Twenty20 International: Luke Wright made 99 not out against Afghanistan in the ICC World Twenty20 2012 while Alex Hales has also scored 99.

England, who has not gone beyond the Super Eight stage in any of the other ICC World Twenty20 tournaments, has faced its first opponent, New Zealand, more than any other in this format and has a win-loss record of seven-three and one No Result.

It was runner-up in the ICC Champions Trophy 2013 when it lost by five runs to India in a final at Birmingham reduced to 20 overs per side by rain.

TEAM PROFILE

After losing a last-ball thriller to Nepal in the quarter-final of the ICC World Twenty Qualifier UAE 2013 last November, Hong Kong went on to beat Papua New Guinea by 29 runs to qualify in sixth place for its maiden ICC global event.

Man of the match in the PNG win was Babar Hayat for his 48 off 47 balls.

Left-arm spinner Moner Ahmed, who turned 42 just before the start of the ICC World Twenty20 2014, took 3 for 26 and effected a run-out. He finished the qualifying tournament as the second leading wicket-taker with 17 wickets.

Hong Kong will hope for explosive starts at the top of the order from big-hitting all-rounder Irfan Ahmed and Jamie Atkinson, who scored 241 runs at a strike-rate 115.31 in the qualifying tournament.

Hong Kong first became an ICC member in 1969 and played four One-Day Internationals in the Asia Cup tournaments of 2004 and 2008.

TEAM PROFILE

Mahendra Singh Dhoni is seeking to become the first captain in international cricket history to hold all three ICC global event titles at the same time.

In 2007, he led India to victory by five runs over Pakistan in Johannesburg in the final of the inaugural ICC World Twenty20.

Four years later he skippered his country to victory over Sri Lanka on home soil, at the Wankhede Stadium, in the final of the ICC Cricket World Cup 2011.

This was India's second ICC CWC title following its shock victory over champion West Indies at Lord's in 1983.

Dhoni is one of three players – Yuvraj Singh and Rohit Sharma being the others – who played in the 2007 ICC World Twenty20 final and also India's most recent T20I against Australia in October 2013.

One of the most memorable moments of the 2007 tournament was Yuvraj hitting England's Stuart Broad for six sixes in an over at Durban in the Group Stage.

In the three ICC World Twenty20 tournaments since 2007, India has not progressed beyond the Super Eight stage.

As of the end of January, India was second to Sri Lanka in the Reliance ICC T20I Rankings and had won 25 and lost 19 of its 46 T20Is.

It had won 11 and lost six of those matches played in Asia.

Yuvraj Singh was man of the match in four of India's six most recent T20Is between October 2012 and October 2013.

TEAM PROFILE

Ever since it shocked Pakistan at the ICC Cricket World Cup 2007, Ireland has been developing into arguably the strongest of all the Associate nations.

At the ICC World Twenty20 2009 in England, it beat Bangladesh to progress to the Super Eight stage.

Having already secured qualification for the ICC Cricket World Cup 2015 by winning the Pepsi ICC World Cricket League Championship, it went on to beat Afghanistan by 68 runs to in the final of ICC World Twenty Qualifier UAE 2013. It was its third title in four appearances at the event.

Before the end of the year it picked up another trophy at the expense of Afghanistan, lifting the ICC Intercontinental Cup trophy with a 122-run victory in the final to record an historic treble of victories.

There were a number of outstanding performances at the ICC World Twenty20 Qualifier UAE 2013, including powerful batsman Paul Stirling whose 76 off 43 balls helped him finish as the tournament's fourth-highest run scorer with 292 runs at a strike-rate of 148.97, while William Porterfield made 288 runs at a strike-rate of 149.22.

Trent Johnston made 62 off 32 balls in his final T20I for Ireland. He has since retired and taken over as coach of Ireland Women.

Nepal reached its maiden ICC global event with a nail-biting five-wicket victory off the last ball over Hong Kong in the quarter-final of the ICC World Twenty20 Qualifier UAE 2013 in Abu Dhabi. Chasing 144 to win, it needed 13 from the last over.

Sharad Vesawkar hit a straight six and then an inside-edged four before hitting the winning runs from the final delivery with the scores level.

Captain Paras Khadka top-scored with 46 from 39 balls and afterwards said: "Our childhood dreams have come true."

Nepal went on to finish third in the event with a five-wicket play-off victory over UAE. However, it missed out on qualification for the ICC Cricket World Cup 2015, finishing ninth in the ICC Cricket World Cup Qualifier New Zealand 2014 in January.

Nepal became an ICC member in 1988, competed at the ICC Under-19 World Cup in 2000 and debuted in first-class cricket in 2004.

It is expected to be strong in the spin bowling department, in particular left-artermer Basant Regmi, who was its leading bowler at the ICC World Twenty20 Qualifier UAE 2013 with 14 wickets.

TEAM PROFILE

This is Netherlands' second appearance at an ICC World Twenty20.

Its first was in 2009 and was memorable for a stunning four-wicket, last-ball victory in the opening match of the tournament over the host England in front of a capacity crowd at Lord's.

Peter Borren, now the captain, scored a vital 30 in that match and Daan van Bunge is another from that side who also played in its final match of the ICC World Twenty20 Qualifier UAE 2013 last November.

It finished fifth in that tournament after beating Hong Kong by seven wickets. But its key qualifying match came against Scotland, which it beat by eight wickets.

Wicket-keeper Wesley Barresi, coming in at number 3, made 75 off 47 balls as Netherlands won with 13 balls to spare.

Barresi was Netherlands' leading batsman in the qualifying tournament, with 264 runs at a strike-rate of 134.01, while seam bowler Ahsan Malik was the leading bowler in the whole competition with 21 wickets at an average of only 10.00 and an economy rate of only 5.67.

Netherlands has qualified for the ICC CWC on four occasions, most recently in 2011, but did not secure qualification for the 2015 tournament.

TEAM PROFILE

New Zealand hosted the first ever Twenty20 International in February 2005, a 44-run defeat to Australia at Eden Park, Auckland.

It reached the semi-final of the first ICC World Twenty20 in 2007 but has not progressed beyond the Super Eight stage since.

In 2012 it suffered the heartbreak of tying both its Super Eight matches, against eventual finalists Sri Lanka and West Indies, and then losing both in the subsequent Super Overs.

In the group stage, Brendon McCullum had hit what was then the highest score in a T20I, 123 made from only 58 balls.

New Zealand beat West Indies 2-0 in a T20I series at home in January.

It lost an ODI series 3-0 in Bangladesh in late 2013 but in January this year it beat 50-over world champion India 4-0 with one tie in a five-match ODI series at home.

New Zealand won the second edition of the ICC Champions Trophy in 2000 and has reached the semi-finals of the ICC Cricket World Cup six times, including the two most recent tournaments where it lost to Sri Lanka on both occasions.

Captain Brendon McCullum is the leading batsman in Twenty20 Internationals with 1,959 runs (by the end of January) at a strike-rate of 135.57.

McCullum is also the only man to have scored two T20I centuries and has featured in all but seven of New Zealand's 71 Twenty20 Internationals.

TEAM PROFILE

Pakistan is the most consistent nation in ICC World Twenty20 history, having reached at least the semi-final stage in all four tournaments.

It also has the joint-most wins (16) at ICC World Twenty20 tournaments. It was runner-up to India in the inaugural competition in 2007 after losing a thrilling final in Johannesburg by five runs.

It won the next ICC World Twenty20 in 2009 when it beat Sri Lanka at Lord's, with Shahid Afridi (54 not out from 40 balls) starring in a comfortable eight-wicket win.

It was a losing semi-finalist in the 2010 and 2012 tournaments, defeated by Australia and Sri Lanka respectively.

Pakistan has (up to the end of January) played more Twenty20 Internationals (78) than any other nation, winning 47 and losing 29.

It won eight and lost four of its T20Is in 2013.

The three leading wicket-takers in T20I history are all from Pakistan and off-spinner Saeed Ajmal heads the list with 81.

In addition, Pakistan won the ICC Cricket World Cup in 1992, was runner-up to Australia in 1999 and has been a semi-finalist on four other occasions.

TEAM PROFILE

The world's number 1-ranked Test nation has the best win percentage in Twenty20 Internationals (62.09 at the end of January) and has not lost any of the 14 bilateral series of two matches or more that it has played since its first T20I in 2005.

But South Africa has yet to progress beyond the semi-final stage at an ICC World Twenty20 tournament.

It lost out to eventual winner Pakistan by seven runs in the 2009 semi-final at Nottingham, but, in the two most recent tournaments, it has not progressed beyond the Super Eight stage.

It won five and lost three of its eight T20Is in 2013 and finished the year strongly in the 50-over format as well, with victories by 141 runs and 134 runs over India.

All eyes will be on 21-year-old Quinton de Kock, the left-handed wicketkeeper-batsman who made his international debut in the T20 format in December 2012 and finished 2013 with three successive ODI centuries against India.

Pace bowlers Dale Steyn and Morne Morkel have 89 T20I wickets between them.

TEAM PROFILE

Host of the previous ICC World Twenty20 2012, Sri Lanka was runner-up in that tournament, to West Indies, and also in the one before that, in 2009 when it lost to Pakistan at Lord's.

It was also runner-up to India in the most recent ICC Cricket World Cup (2011).

Its one outright triumph at an ICC global event came at the ICC Cricket World Cup 1996, when it shocked the cricket world by beating Australia in Lahore.

Sri Lanka has won 16 of its 25 matches at the ICC World Twenty20, the joint-most tournament victories along with Pakistan.

As at the end of January, 12 batsmen had made more than 1,000 runs in T20Is and three are Sri Lankan: Mahela Jayawardene, Kumar Sangakkara and Tillakaratne Dilshan. Spinner Ajantha Mendis has the best strike-rate (a wicket every 12.9 balls) of any bowler with at least 30 T20I wickets and the second best economy rate (6.15 runs per over).

Against Zimbabwe in the ICC World Twenty20 2012, Mendis had the exceptional figures of 4-2-8-6.

Competing at its first ICC World Twenty20, UAE was the fourth team to qualify from the ICC World Twenty20 Qualifier UAE 2013 last November after beating Netherlands by 10 runs in Abu Dhabi.

Having made 117 for 8, UAE restricted its opponents to 107 for 9 with off-spinner Nasir Aziz taking 3 for 21 and left-arm spinner Shadeep Silva taking 1 for 9 from his four overs.

It finished the qualifying tournament in fourth place after losing a play-off to Nepal by five wickets.

Its leading batsman in the tournament was 42-year-old left-hander Khurram Khan who scored 255 runs (over 100 more than the next UAE batsman) at a strike-rate of 128.78.

It will be its second trip to the ICC Cricket World Cup, and its first since 1996.

UAE finished third in the Pepsi ICC World Cricket League Championship, after winning nine of its 14 one-day matches in the tournament.

The current holder of the ICC World Twenty20 trophy, West Indies upset the host Sri Lanka in the 2012 final at Colombo's Premadasa Stadium with a stunning 36-run victory that had looked so unlikely after its shaky start.

It took 17 balls to score its first runs off the bat and was only 32 for 2 after 10 overs. But Marlon Samuels' 78 from 56 balls with six sixes rescued its innings and allowed the side to post 137 for 6.

With Sri Lanka needing 44 from the final four overs, spinner Sunil Narine took the key wicket of Nuwan Kulasekara and finished with 3 for 9 from 3.4 overs.

West Indies also reached the semi-finals of the ICC World Twenty20 2009, a tournament notable for Chris Gayle's blistering assault on Australia fast bowler Brett Lee at The Oval during an innings of 88 from 50 balls that included six fours and six sixes.

Gayle also scored the first century in a Twenty20 International, against South Africa in Johannesburg in the opening match of the ICC World Twenty20 2007.

West Indies won the first two ICC Cricket World Cups in 1975 and 1979, and also lifted the ICC Champions Trophy 2004, beating host England in the final.

TEAM PROFILE

Zimbabwe is competing in its fourth ICC World Twenty20.

It won its first match at the inaugural tournament in 2007, shocking 50-over world champion Australia with a five-wicket defeat in Cape Town. Current captain Brendan Taylor, who was man of the match for his unbeaten 60, is one of four players who appeared in that match and also Zimbabwe's last T20I of 2013 against Pakistan in Harare.

That victory over Australia is Zimbabwe's only win in six matches at the ICC World Twenty20.

At the 2012 tournament it lost by 82 runs to host Sri Lanka and then by 10 wickets to South Africa.

In 2013, it lost a two-match T20I series 2-0 to Pakistan and to West Indies and drew 1-1 against Bangladesh.

It lost ODI series to Pakistan, India and West Indies but beat Bangladesh 2-1.

It finished 2013 well, beating Pakistan in a Test at Harare which was its first Test victory over any side other than Bangladesh since 2001.

Zimbabwe has competed at the last eight editions of the ICC Cricket World Cup and the first five of the ICC Champions Trophy.

TEAM PROFILE

Australia is the current holder of the ICC Women's World Cup and has won the last two ICC Women's World Twenty20 tournaments.

It won the ICC World Twenty20 2010 with a three run victory over New Zealand at Bridgetown, when it managed to defend a total of 106 for 8.

Batter Jess Cameron earned that accolade when Australia retained the WT20 title in 2012. Her 45 from 34 balls was the key innings in Australia's 142 for 4 in Colombo against England in the final to help secure victory by four runs.

And the following year, Cameron was also player of the match in the ICC Women's World Cup final when she scored 75 from 76 balls in Australia's total of 259 for 7, which proved too much for West Indies, which was beaten by 114 runs.

This was Australia's sixth World Cup title.

Since the start of 2013, it has won nine and lost four ODIs and in T20Is, it won three and lost six, but did beat England in successive matches in January and February despite losing the overall multi-format Ashes series.

TEAM PROFILE

The host nation is competing in its first women's ICC global event.

It made its ODI debut in November 2011 when it beat Ireland by 82 runs to finish fifth in the qualifier for the ICC Women's World Cup 2013.

Its victory was based on a century opening stand between Shukhtara Rahman and Sharmin Akhtar.

Since then, it has won only one of 13 completed ODIs, a two-wicket win over South Africa in September 2012 in Dhaka.

Bangladesh has won three out of 12 completed T20 Internationals, against Ireland, South Africa and Sri Lanka, all in the space of two months in late 2012.

Its most recent win, against Sri Lanka, came in the Twenty20 Asia Cup in Guangzhou, China.

Despite making only 62 all out in 18 overs, Bangladesh won by five runs with captain Salma Khatun taking 4 for 6 with her off-spin.

In 2013, Bangladesh lost T20I series to India and South Africa.

TEAM PROFILE

Three months after lifting the ICC Women's World Cup in Australia for the third time, England won the inaugural ICC Women's World Twenty20 2009 on home soil when it comfortably beat New Zealand by six wickets with three overs to spare at Lord's.

Fast bowler Katherine Brunt was player of the match with exceptional figures of 4-2-6-3.

In 2010, England surprisingly did not progress from the group stage but in the most recent tournament in 2012 it was runner-up, losing to Australia by four runs in the final in Colombo.

England captain Charlotte Edwards, one of the greatest ever women's cricketers, was the tournament's leading batter with 172 runs at an average of 43.00.

She is the leading run-scorer in Twenty20 International history with 1,921 runs at 32.01, and also in ODIs with 5,432 runs at 37.20.

She has played 72 out of England's 76 T20Is, the most played by any country.

In 2013-14 she led her side to back-to-back Ashes victories over Australia.

The two series were the first to be played in a multi-format structure with points awarded for each victory.

However, England was defeated 2-1 by Australia in the ODI and T20I series.

From the start of 2013, England has won seven and lost five of its 13 T20Is, with one tied.

TEAM PROFILE

Ireland qualified for its first ICC global event with a two-run, last-ball victory over the Netherlands in the third-place play-off at the ICC Women's World Twenty20 Qualifier in July 2013.

Captain Isobel Joyce, whose twin sister Cecilia is also part of the team and whose brother Ed plays for Ireland's male side, was player of the match with an unbeaten 72 off 64 balls.

Ireland went on to lose to Pakistan by nine wickets in the semi-finals.

Ireland recently defeated Pakistan in the T20 Tri-Series in Doha, although it did lose twice to South Africa and its other match against Pakistan.

Its one victory, by six wickets with two balls remaining, came in the second match of the tournament.

The Joyce sisters were the key performers with a 44-run partnership for the fourth wicket to anchor Ireland's run-chase. Ireland lost all six ODIs in 2013 and January 2014.

TEAM PROFILE

Pakistan qualified for the tournament with a nine-wicket victory over Ireland in the semi-finals of the ICC World Twenty20 qualifier last July in Dublin.

Left-arm spinner Sadia Yousuf took 4 for 9 to restrict Ireland to 65 all out. The final against Sri Lanka was curtailed by rain, so the trophy was shared.

Pakistan is bidding to progress from the group stage for the first time at an ICC global event.

It has appeared in all three ICC Women's World Twenty20 tournaments and three ICC Women's World Cup events (1997, 2009 and 2013).

Its tournament highlight so far was a thrilling victory over India at Galle in the ICC World Twenty20 2012.

Chasing only 99 to win, India was well-placed at 44 for 1 in the tenth over, before off-spinner Nida Dar took three wickets in six balls.

It was Pakistan's first victory in any format over one of the leading four female nations (Australia, England, India and New Zealand).

It has since beaten England once as well, last July at Loughborough.

In 2010, led by Sana Mir, who is still its captain, Pakistan won gold at the Twenty20 cricket final of the Asian Games at Guangzhou, China, with a ten-wicket victory over Bangladesh.

TEAM PROFILE

South Africa secured its place at the ICC World Twenty20 2014 with a five-wicket victory over Pakistan in a play-off at the last event in Sri Lanka in 2012, after finishing fourth in Group B.

Its one group stage victory, over host Sri Lanka, was its first at an ICC World Twenty20 tournament following winless appearances in 2009 and 2010.

In October 2010, Shandre Fritz became only the second woman to score a century in a T20 International when she made 116 not out off 71 balls against Netherlands at Potchefstroom.

South Africa has appeared in five ICC Women's World Cup tournaments, reaching the semi-finals in 2000 and the Super Six stage in the most recent edition last year.

Since that tournament, it has won ODI series against Bangladesh and Sri Lanka.

In T20Is, it lost to West Indies but has beaten Bangladesh and Sri Lanka.

Most recently, it lost to Pakistan in the final of a tri-series also involving Ireland in Doha.

Since the start of 2013, captain Mignon du Preez has been its leading T20 batter, with 305 runs at a strike-rate of 89.44 and its second leading 50-over batter with 515 runs at an average of 28.61.

TEAM PROFILE

Sri Lanka reached the ICC Women's World Twenty20 2014 with a 33-run victory (D-L method) over Netherlands in the semi-finals of the ICC Women's World Twenty20 Qualifier in Ireland last July.

Deepika Rasangika was player of the match for her 50-ball 47 that set up Sri Lanka's total of 157 for 6 from 19 overs.

The final against Pakistan was marred by rain and the trophy was shared.

In January this year, Sri Lanka beat India 2-1 in a three-match T20I series in India, a result made even more impressive given that it had just lost the ODI series 3-0.

Captain Shashikala Siriwardene steered her side home in the deciding match with an unbeaten 46 from 42 balls.

Siriwardene also led Sri Lanka to a memorable upset victory over England at the start of the ICC Women's World Cup 2013 in Mumbai.

TEAM PROFILE

Stafanie Taylor is rated the top all-rounder in the women's game, more than 200 Reliance ICC ODI Rankings points ahead of Australia's Ellyse Perry.

Taylor, who is 22 and made her West Indies debut when only 17, is also the number 1 ODI bowler in the world and sits at number 4 in the batting rankings.

Taylor is one of only six female batters to have scored 4,000 or more ODI runs, and is the third highest T20I run-scorer with 1,321 runs (as of February 10), including 11 half-centuries.

West Indies has solid tournament pedigree, having been runner-up in the ICC Women's World Cup 2013 and a semi-finalist in both the previous two ICC Women's World Twenty20 tournaments.

In the ICC World Twenty 2010, Deandra Dottin became the first woman to score a century in a T20I when she made 112 not out off 45 balls with seven fours and nine sixes against South Africa in the group stage in St Kitts.

In October 2013, West Indies won a T20 tri-series tournament involving England and New Zealand.

THINK WISE

The ICC's Think Wise partnership with UNAIDS and UNICEF has been raising awareness and reducing stigma around HIV and AIDS since 2003.

Among the global champions of this partnership are Kumar Sangakkara, Graeme Smith and Stafanie Taylor.

By providing exposure at major events and involving elite players, Think Wise campaigns have been credited with contributing to reduced levels of stigma and greater levels of awareness in Africa, Asia and the Caribbean.

During the ICC World Twenty20 Bangladesh 2014, players from Bangladesh and the West Indies will undertake specific awareness-raising activities and a public service announcement featuring Bangladesh all-rounder Shakib Al Hasan will be screened at tournament matches.

Players from the teams taking part in the men's and women's finals will wear red ribbon stickers as a sign of solidarity for people living with HIV and AIDS.

The umpires and referees will also sport the Think Wise logo on their shirt sleeves.

ROOM TO READ

The ICC piloted a partnership with the educational charity Room to Read during the ICC Cricket World Cup 2011, and the success of this initiative convinced both parties to extend the relationship through to 2015.

One of the early fruits of this continuation has been the development of local language cricket books to promote literacy. The books feature Sri Lanka Test and ODI Captain Angelo Mathews (Little Angelo's Big Day Out is available in both Sinhalese and Tamil) and India Batsman Virat Kohli (Virat Ki Pari is available in Hindi).

Room to Read's ambition to promote access to literacy and girls' education has resonated with many of cricket's leading players including Shane Watson, who is a global champion of this cause.

WASH UNITED

WASH United is the local Charity Partner at the ICC World Twenty20 Bangladesh 2014.

WASH United uses fun, games, sport role-models and positive communication to promote good hygiene (hand washing with soap) and sanitation for all.

WASH United is focused on the ICC Women's World Twenty20 event and particularly on tackling the taboo around menstrual hygiene.
